

“From the Director’s Desk”

Dear Returning Students,

The Office of Judicial Affairs is happy to have you on campus for what will be another exciting semester (Fall 2020).

At this juncture, it is very important to clearly communicate the expectations of the Office of Judicial Affairs to all students of American University Nigeria (AUN). As you know we are facing a new normal so, as members of this community, there is a standard of behavior to which you are held accountable. Generally, students are expected to adhere to the Code of Conduct and the Academic Integrity Code. Students are expected to obey Federal, State, and Local laws especially traffic rules. AUN has zero-tolerance for illicit drugs and for over-the-counter (OTC) drugs. If you are legally using any OTC drug, ensure you have on you a doctor’s prescription. There are several regulations concerning Covid-19 which are already communicated to you. You are equally advised to adhere to them and please avoid any confrontational behaviour--particularly towards our awesome security team. Please cooperate with them, and if you have any challenges, the senior members are always available.

Campus life will change significantly because of Covid-19 regulations so bear with this new normal; even this shall pass one day.

We hope that you will kick start this experience by familiarizing yourself with all the codes and all regulations. Here at AUN, we have a responsibility for each other and to uphold all student codes and regulations. Do feel free to report any violations to our office at Dorm CC Basement, 02 OR send us an email: judicial.affairs@aun.edu.ng. The office operations have also changed thus, use only our official email for communication henceforth.

Thank you for choosing to be a part of this community.

Please reach to the codes: <https://www.aun.edu.ng/index.php/campus-life/judicial-affairs>

Should you have any questions or inquiries, please don’t hesitate to contact us anytime via email or visit us at our office from Monday to Friday (8:30 am to 5:00 pm) each week except during holidays. You can schedule a meeting just by sending “a request to meet” to us via email or call 07037798477.

We plan to execute our activities and programs online for this semester; therefore, you should have a working laptop or a smart phone.

Stay close to your email for more updates.

Best wishes.

Judicial Affairs Team!
